Lyrics

[verse 1]

She was a runaway teen when her boyfriend left the city Pregnant at sixteen she had no time for self-pity Working day and night as a waitress in a bar

[verse 2]

It's hard to do things right but she never blamed God when the baby cried at night
She was thankful for what she got
And every night she prayed
I still believe in miracles

[chorus]

and I wonder how she can make it on her own
but then she smiles and says:
I'm not alone
He's always with me and you know?
I still believe in miracles

[verse 3]

Nothing is impossible is what the doctors said but chances are small,
your baby's health is so bad...
Nothing we can do
You need a miracle

[chorus]

and I wonder how
she never seems to lose her mind
but then she smiles and says:
I may be deaf or blind,
mute or cripple but you know?
I'll still believe in miracles

[verse 4]

The last time that I saw her,
the same child by her side
She said she met a good guy
This time she got it right she said: "Life's been good to me

[chorus]

and I don't know how she made it through the years of pain
But then she smiles and says:
I can't complain
He's always with me and you know?
I still believe in miracles

I still believe in miracles

She just smiles and says
I may be deaf or blind,
mute or cripple but you know?
I'll still believe in miracles
